Summary

Become a CBP Officer (Program Manager) and apply your extensive, comprehensive, and thorough knowledge of program-related legislation and regulations. Your expert investigative technique will allow you to manage the identification of potential terrorists and instruments of terror and assist in performing layered enforcement activities related to counter-terrorism. This position starts at a salary of $77,490 (GS-1895-12, Step 1).

This position will be filled on a temporary basis not-to-exceed three years with possible extensions for an additional two years (in one year increments). No later than the end of the fifth year of this temporary promotion/reassignment, a decision will be made by management to determine whether 1) the incumbent will return to the same or similar position and the previous grade held prior to this temporary promotion/reassignment; or 2) the incumbent will be permanently promoted/reassigned without further competition. If management grants the incumbent permanent status, the option for management to return the employee to the same or similar position will no longer be available as stated in option 1.

Retirement does not change during the temporary promotion, but may change if the position is made permanent. If going from a LEO Covered Position to a Secondary CBPO Enhanced Retirement Covered Position: Please be advised that when you enter on duty in this Secondary CBPO Enhanced Retirement covered position you will no longer be covered under the Special Retirement System for Law Enforcement Officers, but will only be covered under the Federal Employees Retirement System (FERS). For further information on the Secondary CBPO Enhanced Retirement coverage, please see the section on Retirement Coverage.

Who May Apply: Current U.S. Customs and Border Protection employees with competitive status.
